

Finding a sensible cigarette is just plain, common sense

All you have to do is to look for three points. Take any cigarette you know. Then ask yourself—

Is its taste just what you like best?

Is it comfortable to your throat and tongue—free from bite or hotness?

Will it allow you to smoke as often as you'd like to smoke without any mean after-feeling?

Fatimas aren't the only cigarettes that answer "yes" on all of these points. There are other sensible cigarettes. But facts seem to indicate that Fatimas are the sensible cigarette for most men. Because they now outsell every other cigarette in the world costing over 5c.

Doesn't it seem reasonable that you, too, will like Fatima best? Try them—TODAY.

TWO TESTS FOR ANY CIGARETTE

The taste of the cigarette—according to a leading tobacco journal—is up to the smoker. But there are other qualities that you should look for in the cigarette that may help the average smoker to choose more wisely between different kinds of cigarettes.

The first test is for coolness, which means more comfort to the throat and tongue. Light any cigarette. Draw in it in your mouth for a few seconds. Put it "float" around against your tongue and throat. Now blow out the smoke. If the cigarette contains a high grade of mild tobacco, it will always feel cool, and smooth both to your throat and to your tongue.

On the other hand, if the proportions are not right and if the cigarette contains a large proportion of the harsh, biting tobacco, it will feel like it is burning your throat and tongue.

Clip out these tests and try them on Fatima

OFFER 20 CENTS FOR COTTON

Farmers' Union Has Proposition To Take Million Bales.

New Orleans, La., Dec. 8.—Announcement was made at today's session of the association of state presidents of farmers' unions that the association has in its possession a bona fide offer from one of the chief warring nations of Europe to buy 1,000,000 bales of cotton at 20c a pound. The offer is for middling grade.

A committee, composed of H. N. Pope, D. E. Lyday and Peter Radford, all of Texas, was appointed to confer with government officials in an effort to obtain protection for the shipment.

It was said the cotton could be sold and forwarded under the supervision of the farmers' co-operative and educational union of America and that each cotton state would furnish a portion of the shipment.

The offer, it was stated, specified that the cotton was to be used for domestic purposes only, and it was declared the shipment would be assembled in New Orleans for early delivery.

Aside from safeguarding the financial part of the transaction, it was said the belligerent government agreed to the appointment by the United States government of a committee to accompany the shipment to see that the cotton is not used in the manufacture of ammunition.

The identity of the prospective purchaser was withheld. The order is from private parties, it was stated, and in no way is it related to an order from Germany for 1,000,000 bales at 15c, announced on Sept. 8 by Senator Hoke Smith of Georgia.

What Furs Really Are.

Although a great number of popular-priced furs masquerade under names that no actual animals claim as theirs, there is no particular secrecy about it. One of the fur concerns, for instance, publishes a catalog to inform customers just what they are actually buying.

Alaska bear for example, is the best Minnesota raccoon, colored a dark brown.

Adelaide chinchilla is the fur of a selected, soft-haired and delicately colored Australian opossum.

French ermine is the fur of the white hare of France.

Baltic fox is the fur of a large hare of northern Europe.

Iceland white fox is white Tibet lamb, combed until the hair is straight.

Kamchatka fox is the fur of the northern timber wolf.

Manchurian fox is the fur of a variety of half wild dog from Manchuria.

Yorkford lynx is Canadian wildcat.

Baltic lynx is the large Belgian hare.

Finland lynx is a species of Australian kangaroo.

Siberian pony is selected Russian calf skin.
